Getting to the York Management School

More details on: <http://www.york.ac.uk/np/maps/>

By Car

Directions from the A64

Follow the outer ring road (A64 on the south and east sides of the city, A1237 around the north and west) to the junction with the Hull/Bridlington roads (A1079/A166). Turn off at the exit marked University and follow the signs towards the city centre, past Grimston Bar. Take a left turn at the roundabout marked 'University' and at the next roundabout take the first left turn onto Heslington East.

Directions from Heslington West

Follow University Road towards Heslington Hall. Turn left onto Field Lane and follow the road past St Paul's Church, going straight ahead at the traffic lights. Turn right at the next roundabout on Field Lane onto Heslington East.

By Taxi

A journey by taxi from the railway station to the University will take approximately 15 minutes. There is a taxi rank just outside the station.

By Rail

York is on the main East Coast Line from London King's Cross to Edinburgh. Fast trains leave from both north and south at frequent intervals. There is also a direct service across the Pennines between York, Leeds and Manchester Airport. The University is two miles from the railway station and you will need to get a bus or taxi onto campus.

By Bus

A number of companies operate buses to the University: the No. 44 departs from the railway station. The scheduled journey time from the railway station to Heslington East is 30 minutes. Other services are the C2, 27, 27a, 128 and 129.
